Thank you. The e-mail is correct, except I was retained prior to yesterday but did not receive information from my clients until earlier this week. I have no objection to rescheduling the pending conference.

Subject: Case 10CV2507: Follow-up to our Phone Conversation Today

Attorney John Harper,

As a follow-up to our earlier conversation today, I want to ensure you understood the scope of the rescheduling request for the Joint Discovery Case Management Plan from Monday, December 13, 2010 to a later date next week. I have been in the process of securing counsel. Next week, you should be able to proceed forth with conversations directly with the attorney. I will be able to provide further contact details on the attorney next week.

As a result, I am writing a letter to Judge Vanessa Gilmore, at the United States District Court Southern District of Texas Houston Division, requesting that the Order Conference for Friday, December 17, 2010 be rescheduled for a later date. Rescheduling will provide an opportunity for me to gain counsel, for you to review the case effectively, since as you stated you were just retained Thursday, December 9th, 2010, and provide a response or answer.

I am contacting you again by phone to ensure you respond to this message today.

I will make the courts aware that this has been agreed upon by both parties. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me in writing via e-mail.

KaMeCheal McKeever
